Thoroughly cooking foods of animal origin such as beef, eggs, fish, lamb, pork, poultry or shellfish reduces the risk of foodborne illness. Individuals with certain health conditions may be at higher risk if these foods are consumed raw or undercooked.

Y'ALL COME BACK AND SEE US AGAIN!

Blue Bell Lodge is as comfortable as a pair of old blue jeans. This hideaway retreat with a guest ranch flavor offers a Western experience that's sure to charm.

At Blue Bell, you can take your pick of activities. Saddle up for a trail ride through some of the park's prettiest areas. If you're feeling a bit more daring, try an all-day horseback ride led by seasoned cowboys.

Our chuck wagon cookouts, another Blue Bell tradition, draw quite a crowd. Start with a haywagon ride through the scenic backcountry of the park to a secluded canyon followed by an old-fashioned chuck wagon dinner, complete with Western entertainment.

Every cabin has a fire pit outside, so you can end your day telling tall tales around the campfire!
